

THE REVIEW

BY JACK & NIZE.

SKATING rinks in some localities are called skating academies.

BARNUM has already marked out his plans for next summer's business. It is a tentative one.

When a young man sits down and endeavors to map out a course in life that will enable him to make money without honest labor, his condition is a precarious one.

John Brown was hung at Charleston, now the capital of West Virginia, twenty-five years ago. John A. Wise, father of the late republican candidate for governor of Virginia, was governor and signed the death warrant.

The funeral of Vice President Hendricks took place at Indianapolis yesterday noon, and was among the most imposing this country has ever known. The city was draped in mourning and for hours before the funeral the streets were packed with people from all portions of the country.

Marion.

Mrs. W. T. McLean is very sick. Rev. Cunningham returned last Friday from a trip west.

A. O. Bolen, of Lehman & Bolen, Decatur, spent Thanksgiving with relatives.

Miss Ida Graham, of Clinton, spent Thanksgiving with her friend, Mrs. Callie Frey.

It is reported that T. O. Grady will soon start another newspaper here, and will name it "The Times."

There was a dance at the rink Thanksgiving night. Skating lasted until 9 o'clock, after which the dancing commenced.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Potter, died last night. The funeral takes place to-day from the Christian church, Elder Henry, of Clinton, officiating.

Donavin's Tennesseans gave us a very pleasing entertainment at the opera house last Wednesday night. Some think them superior to the Stewart-Wilberforce company, while others do not. They had a large attendance.

The pony team attached to Geo. Crocker's delivery wagon, got scared while in Emery & Compton's elevator last Thursday, and ran away. They made a sharp turn at the corner of the mill pond, and one of them being blind, it ran into a tree and was killed instantly.

The Knights of Labor Fair and Entertainment.

The Knights of Labor fair and festival opened at the tabernacle last evening, and will continue to-night and to-morrow night. A good time is promised to all who attend. There will be the usual suppers and raffling. The attendance last evening, was not very large, but to-night the managers will be prepared to receive all who have time to drop in and spend a few hours. They have nicely arranged booths and supper and the ladies in charge are as follows:

FANCY TABLE—Mrs. Reavel, Mrs. Ben Doty and Miss Nettie James.

CONFECTORY TABLE—Mrs. C. W. Frew and Mrs. Charles McCune.

ICE CREAM TABLE—Mrs. John T. Reid.

CAKE TABLE—Mrs. George Roberts.

FISHING POND—Mary Hershey.

DINNER TABLES—Mrs. Hershey, Mrs. J. Roberts and Mrs. J. Weigand.

OYSTER TABLE—Mrs. N. L. Krone and Mrs. John Kayler.

Mrs. George Roberts has charge of the cooking department. Mr. John T. Reid is the ticket seller and Mr. J. O. Albright and Ben F. Doty door-keepers.

To-night a fine doll and a pair of shoes will be voted away, and the following articles will be sold by chance: Fancy clock, fancy sofa cushion, fine bride, fine willow rocking chair and a pastry case which will either be voted away or sold by chance.

The contestants for the different articles are for the New Home sewing machine, Miss Kate Stabler and Mrs. J. B. Bradley; bureau, Miss Emma Wiegand and Miss Plummer; rocking chair, Miss Bertha Lusk and Miss Hattie Collins; snare drum, Willie Frew and Sherry Frankhouse; pair of shoes, Stella Lowe and Lettie Bagley; fine doll, Susie James and Della Butts.

The management expects a good attendance to-night and will make it enjoyable for all.

Birthday Beams

On Thursday evening a very merry party assembled at the residence of Mrs. M. L. McDonald, number 135 West Main street, to celebrate the anniversary of her birthday. Cards formed the principle amusement of the evening, and at a proper hour, a sumptuous repast was served. Many elegant presents were received by the happy hostess. Good nights and well wishes were not spoken until a late hour.

Lincoln Coal.

Delivered to any part of the city, $2.25 per ton. Try a load and you will buy another. This coal is selected for family use. Ed Martin.

Mount Olive Coal.

If you are troubled with slate and chinks in your stoves and furnaces, try a load of Mt. Olive coal, sold by H. McClelland, 11931st

PERSONAL

Judge Foley, of Lincoln, was in the city yesterday.

Thomas Andrews left at midnight for Chicago.

J. H. Vadakin, of Bethany, was in the city yesterday.

Prof. and Mrs. H. S. DeSollars are home from Peoria.

Riley Pratt returned last evening to Lincoln, Nebraska.

H. C. Faith, of Warrensburg, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. L. T. James, of Blue Mound, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Della Harrouff, of Oreska, was shopping in the city Tuesday.

Miss Lou Jones, of Lintner, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Mrs. George Van Kiper is quite ill at her home on North Water street.

Dr. R. L. Walston went to Clinton yesterday, on professional business.

W. O. Greenfield, of Dalton City, was among Decatur's visitors yesterday.

J. H. Hoover, of Maroa, did business with our wholesale merchants yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Armstrong have gone to housekeeping on West Wood street.

Dr. Harvey and Samuel Henshie of Blue Mound did business in this city on Monday.

Mr. Willis H. Post, an insurance agent of Peoria, was in Decatur on business yesterday.

P. S. Nowland, of Peoria, clerk of the Decatur pool commission, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grindol have gone to Columbus. They will visit Baltimore before their return.

Miss Dora House, who has been visiting in the city for several days, returned home yesterday.

Miss Inez Osborn, is now on the road as traveling salesman for the Decatur Candy company.

George M. Foster and Mary E. Rowe, of Decatur, were granted a marriage license yesterday.

John Bobb is building a new home on North Calhoun street, which he will rent, when completed.

Mrs. M. Keating, who has been visiting friends in Jacksonville, for a few weeks, has returned home.

C. Gross, of Blue Mound, was in the city yesterday, and called on The Review, to renew his subscription.

Miss Gertrude Randolph is home from Lincoln, Nebraska, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Will Lewis.

Mrs. J. G. Fish is visiting at Elgin with Mrs. Clara Fish, who recently spent several weeks in this city.

J. K. Shiveley, of Cerro Gordo, was in the city yesterday. He made The Review a pleasant and profitable call.

W. S. Ford, of Clinton, was among the visitors to the city yesterday. He will go on the road for Hatfield & Co.

Ed. Wylapp, of St. Johns, Kansas, who has been visiting friends near Forsythe, returned home yesterday afternoon.

J. M. Davisson, of the host of the Palace hotel, goes on duty there as night clerk. Billy Powers will shine behind a big diamond in the day time.

Aziel Perry, who was recently very painfully injured while working in the Wabash shops, has so far recovered as to be able to resume his duties.

Dick O'Banion, who formerly ran the Wabash dining hall on the levee, was in the city yesterday. Dick is now in business at Bloomington.

Miss Grace Fielder, of Chicago, well known in this city, has been quite ill with diphtheria. She was attended by Dr. Small, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Henry Cook, of Macon, was in the city yesterday, and was quite anxious to learn something of the particulars of an old hermit making a "ten strike" near Denver the other day. A long account of the affair was published in the St. Louis papers at the time. The old fellow was a Scotchman, and for years has lived a secluded life on a piece of land near Denver. When he struck a paying vein the other day, his luck overcame his reason, and he was left a raving maniac. None of his relatives could be found. Mrs. Cook had a Scotch uncle, with no relatives this side of the Atlantic but herself, who lives in the west, and fills the published accounts of the romantic story. She is anxious to learn for certain, whether or not it was her uncle.

A Fortune in the Scheme.

Smith—"I've got a scheme to beat those French Canadians who refuse to be vaccinated. I tell you what, there's a fortune in it."

Jones—"How will you do it?" Smith—"Easy enough. I'll have all the pins in Canada dipped in vaccine virus, and every time a Canadian attempts to hug a girl the pins in the back of her dress will puncture his arm and vaccinate him before he knows it."

Jones—"That's a pretty good scheme so far as the men are concerned, but how will you vaccinate the women?"

Smith—"Oh, that's easy, too. The women will put the pins in their muffs when they go to dress, and they'll get it."

Jones—"And it will make their tongues so sore that they can't talk! Bully for you! You ought to make a fortune out of it."—[Newman Independent —Matinee Saturday.

—The Hidden Hand to-night.
—Winter wheat is said to be doing well.

—See the Basye dramatic company at the opera house.

—The board of supervisors will meet on Tuesday next.

—Friday will be pension day at the county clerk's office.

—Mt. Olive coal, $2.25 per ton, delivered.—[R. McCLELLAND. d2dtf

—Yesterday was December first—the beginning of the end of the year.

—Officer Wise, lately of the levee day force, has gone on night duty up town.

—Officers Hewes and Nevins locked up a plain drunk yesterday on the levee.

—The brick masons have nearly finished their work on the new Loeb building.

—The Decatur bunters now at Fisher, Arkansas, are expected home about the last of the week.

—The new dump and shed at the new shaft will soon be completed. Mr. Lowe is superintending the work.

—The white flag with a blue crescent, signifying clear weather, was hoisted at John Irwin's signal station yesterday.

—A teamster named Hamilton was arrested on Monday for teaming without a license. He will have a hearing to-day.

—The old Powers stable, on Wood street, is being torn down. The old building so long used as an office will also have to go.

—Coles county sent nine criminals to Joliet the past few weeks and before the present term of court will send three more.

—Governor Oglesby and several prominent citizens and state officials attended the funeral of Vice President Hendricks yesterday.

—Walter L. Wiggins, a Pacific express messenger at Bethany, is accused of embezzling several hundred dollars from the company.

—The Wabash pay car reached here on Monday evening and yesterday the employees were made happy on receiving their "where with all."

—Al Morgan is making a number of fine improvements on his place of business on Prairie street. He will make it one of the most attractive in the city.

—A lodge of Knights of Labor may be formed at Macon. Bert Stewart, of the Labor Bulletin, and J. F. Reynolds spoke there on Monday evening.

—The I. D. & S. train for Indianapolis on Monday evening, consisted of eleven coaches, all loaded with prominent citizens, en route for Indianapolis.

—The I. B. & W. has purchased combination coaches of the Woodruff make, similar to those used by the I. D. & S. which have proved quite popular with the traveling public.

—The Universalist church sociable was held last evening at the residence of Mrs. I. Baldwin, on West Main street, and was well attended. Those present spent the evening very pleasantly.

—General Baggage Masters H. A. Winter and Samuel Overholt, of the Illinois Central and Wabash, have issued an order that no loading or sleeping will be allowed in the baggage room at the depot.

—F. D. Caldwell, the live coal dealer, has a rather novel sign in the window of his up-town office. It is the word "coal" manufactured from the fuel itself and is certain to attract the attention of all passers.

—Decatur coal is selling at $2.25 per ton, delivered. It is of excellent quality, without dirt or slate, and is the best and cheapest coal on the market for the price. Its production gives employment to home people. Buy it. d&wtf

—The work of improving the Wabash ticket office will commence at once. The office will be extended into the ladies waiting room so as to take in the first window. For several years past the company's agents have not had enough room, and under the new arrangements will find it convenient and pleasant.

—Those who will take the trouble to look over the Arlington hotel register, will be surprised at the greatly increasing patronage of this very excellent "travelers' home," for Mr. Thomas, the gentlemanly and accommodating proprietor, makes his hotel a home for those who stop with him. His place is located in the business centre, facing the park, giving a splendid view. Besides, it is on the Citizens' street-car line, cars passing every ten minutes. Give the Arlington a call, and you will not regret it, but will stop there again. Good table, good beds, accommodating clerks, and prompt and affable servants.

—We have received a copy of the Quincy Sunday Optic, published by Everitt & Waggoner. The latter gentleman has a number of friends in Decatur, who knew him during his connection with the Clinton Register. Old friends here hope his Optic will see a big pile of money for him, and that he will be able to get his hands on it.

—Alexander Conn, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for a year, and in whose case a supersedeas was granted by Judge Scott, of the supreme court, is still in jail, and will have to remain there. His case is similar to that of Joe Mackin, and he cannot give bail. At the meeting of the supreme court in January, it will be decided whether or not he can have a new trial.

—Yesterday Marshal Mason notified all hackmen, street car drivers and runners at the depot that they would have to stand within five feet of their carriages or cars. This is the requirement of the ordinance, and hereafter it will be strictly enforced. Some of the drivers have become careless and make themselves obnoxious to strangers coming into the city by pulling and hauling on their baggage and soliciting their patronage.

—Little Gracie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wise, died yesterday morning of diphtheria, aged two years and twenty-three days. Gracie was a sweet, intelligent child, and was the idol of her parents, who are bowed down with grief over their terrible affliction. The funeral will take place from the residence this afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. Newcomer, officiating. The parents have the sincere sympathy of their many friends.

—The Basye Dramatic company presented the "Danites" at the opera house last evening to a large audience, who were apparently delighted, if the demonstrative applause goes for anything. Frank London as Sandy, Miss Ella Salisbury as Billy Piper, Dick Oglesby as the Heathen Chinee, and R. W. Bowers as the Judge, divided the honors, while the rest of the company did very well and were liberally applauded. To-night the company play "The Hidden Hand."

—Among the coming attractions at the opera house will be Joseph Downing and Miss Sadie Haddon in "Nobody's Claim." They are now playing to good houses in St. Louis, and will be here on next Tuesday evening, December 8th. On Wednesday evening the 9th, Miss Lillian Russell, the handsome comic opera artist, will appear in light opera. Just what she will present is not known, but probably it will be "Polly, the Pet of the Regiment," a new and charming military opera. Fanny Davenport in "Fedora" is among the future attractions.

—The Soldiers' Home commission held three sessions at Springfield yesterday with no definite results. The standing of the commissioners is said to be the same as at the former meeting in Springfield—that is, two for Decatur, two for Dixon, two for Quincy and one for Springfield. In scattering votes, Alton, Warsaw and Rock Island came to the front, and it is rumored at Springfield that the second named place is coming to the front as the dark horse. It was also stated there last evening that the matter would be positively settled to-day.

The Highway Robbery
Yesterday John McCormick, who was slugged and robbed on Monday night, was resting very comfortably and his physicians stated that he would pull through all right. As stated in The Review his story about being robbed at Oakland park was a little fishy, and upon coming to his senses yesterday he gave a better account of the affair. It occurred near Mills & Harry's office, where a bloody handkerchief with a brick in it and a cap were found. George Jones, one of the young men whom McCormick claims assaulted him, was removed from the first ward calaboose to the county jail. He protests his innocence and says on Monday evening, he was at the opera house. Harry Franks, the other young man in from Champaign, and could not be found yesterday, but the officers hope to catch him. Jones says Franks wanted him to help slug McCormick and he refused. He says that they all came up town together and that he left them about half past six, but between that and the time he claims to have gone to the opera house, he cannot account for himself. McCormick has been working for a farmer near Niantic. He lost fifty-five dollars in money and a silver watch.

Notes Shaky After all.
In reply to an intended slander published in the Herald in this city, in regard to the Decatur Mutual Life and Accident association, we take no issue with our readers' printers' ink, in regard to the first year's report, given by the auditor of state, but we take issue in the slanderous intention of that article. We are happy to inform the Herald that instead of $214 being paid out to policy holders up to the present month over $5,000 has been paid on losses, and we have added over 700 new members to the 600 in last year's report. We are also happy to inform it and the public in general that this institution is under an entire different management, since the report of 1884, and is gradually growing in public favor and the confidence of all except the poor deminutive editor that does not receive his share of the advertising of this institution, and not knowing how to revenge himself only by making a cowardly attempt at slander. The present officers are A. F. Horst, president; N. T. Watson, secretary. Our business is open to the inspection of all members of the association. N. T. WATSON d1f
